

MURDER INTERNATIONAL PRESENTS

FENWICK ENTERPRISES

Welcome to an evening of MURDER and INTRIGUE provided by MURDER INTERNATIONAL

Tonight is the Annual Dinner and the announcement of bonus payments of the London based finance company, Fenwick Enterprises. Lord and Lady Fenwick will be here tonight along with Adam Black, the company's Director of Procurement.

Most of the other higher level employees are here tonight as it is usual that bonuses are handed out by Lord Fenwick to the staff he feels have served him well over the past year. These bonuses are unusually high and bring a great deal of prestige.

Where does all the money come from?
What do the United Nations have to do with the company?
Just what is Lady Fenwick's problem?

Annette Lloyd, the Director of Human Resources UK, has organised a competition. The best will win a small prize. (What would you want as a bonus instead of cash?) Simply jot down your answer on the piece of paper provided by us and a prize will be awarded for the funnies or most original answer.

We find it adds more to your enjoyment if you join in the theme of the evening, so why imagine you are a company employee or shareholder for the evening. If you prefer to enjoy the evening in a less dramatic way, just sit back and relax.

If you arrive after 7:30pm, the play will be underway and you may miss some very interesting revelations.
